

New Antique Currency and Currency Dealer Directory

KingCurrency.com brings you the MOST COMPREHENSIVE Antique Currency / Currency Dealer Directory. This directory can be accessed from www.kingcurrency.com or directly at www.kingcurrency1.com

March 4, 2006 (FPRC) -- In recent years there has been an EXPLOSIVE growth in collecting antique currency. Many people are discovering the wonders of rare currency both from a collector and investor standpoint. Paper Money values are at an unprecedented and all time HIGH and the market continues to stay strong. In fact many coin dealers are now jumping into the paper money market.

However, for the beginning or even advanced collector the paper money world can seem unaccessible. This is due, in large part, to a lack of organized information. KingCurrency.com has FIXED this problem by putting together the MOST COMPREHENSIVE Antique Currency / Currency Dealer Directory. This directory can be accessed through www.kingcurrency.com or directly at www.kingcurrency1.com

The directory is updated frequently so be sure to check back often.

Whether your interest be the silver certificate, gold certificate, treasury note, legal tender note, federal reserve note, high denomination note, national bank note, error note, fancy or low serial number, World banknote, fractional currency, obsolete currency, confederate currency or colonial currency you will find answers here.

If you are looking for currency dealers, paper money shows, currency auctions, information about Friedberg numbers, third party grading services, paper money magazines, currency values, paper money values, bank note forums, currency photos, rare currency information or just about anything else you can think of related to antique currency you will find answers here!

This directory is and will always remain free! The only criteria for inclusion into the directory is a high quality website related to collectible currency.
