

Cell Phone Love Life Booster

For those fed up with poor or even disasterous relationships or whose love life lacks lustre, cell phone technology is now being used to develop self-esteem and focus positive energy on your love life.

September 19, 2006 (FPRC) -- For those fed up with poor or difficult relationships or whose love life lacks lustre, cell phone technology is now being used to develop self-esteem and focus positive energy on your love life.

A positive attitude and a clear goal often defines the difference between success and failure. And this is particularly true when it comes to our love lives. Low self-esteem or lack of confidence can often stand in the way of romantic success, sabotaging our relationships and further poisoning our self confidence. This negative cycle can be broken by standing back and taking an entirely new approach to your romantic life.

The idea involves rediscovering who you really are and what you really want and clearing away any emotional blocks that might be messing up your love life.

"Peoples romantic life should be a thing of joy and excitement, not something to be dreaded or avoided. We want people to come out of this process feeling, refreshed and open, knowing who they are and what they want and a good idea of how they are going to get it", said a spokesperson for Vitalaffirmations.com, the 'positive mindset' website.

"There's no doubt about it, with a positive confident attitude and clear goals, success is inevitable. We simply help people achieve this."

Vitalaffirmations.com (<http://www.vitalaffirmations.com>) offers their "Perfect Partner" service that uses cell phone technology in combination with other positive thinking techniques to help you achieve romantic success.

The service works by sending positive messages, directed questions and personal challenges, direct to your mobile. Part of the secret is that because the messages are sent regularly at random times, the mind stays focussed, subconsciously the mind is in a state of expectation or surprise, but more importantly it is remaining aware and focussed on the positive messages. Vitalaffirmations.com, the 'positive mindset' website, helps people achieve and maintain a 'winning attitude' for success in all aspects of life, from performance enhancement to improving health, wealth and happiness. Established in 2005 and based in the United Kingdom, Vitalaffirmations.com provides free resources and information on positive thinking techniques as well as offering additional support services.
