John Thornely set up www.iBizCo.com, to provide self-development and wealth creation training. John says that "as soon as I saw LogicL's enormous potential to provide huge benefit to Members at extremely low cost (less than the cost of a cup of coffee a day) – coupled with the huge earning potential of the on-line business offered to all Members of LogicL – I quickly looked to collaborate with LogicL!"

As a result of their close collaboration to date, LogicL has asked Thornely to develop the strategy for its Global launch, starting with the Wealth Creation Summit in London on November 4 and 5. Thereafter, the launch will roll-out to with the US launch in Miami, Florida, on November 28 and 29.

Delegates to the Wealth Creation Summits in London and Miami will be given a full 'insider tour' of what the hot new LogicL system will give them, including:

- The secrets of the psychology behind the mega-success Wealth Creation Gurus, and
- How to create businesses that will generate passive income 24/7/365

- How to trade the stock market like a pro and how to rent out shares and make a passive monthly income
- How to totally master the property market and make money starting with no assets!
- How to build a global business and income from just a PC and a small amount of time.

Using on-line technology and down-loadable modules, LogicL delivers this hugely valuable knowledge and training to Members in easily-digestible but life-changing daily or weekly sessions that require only 15 to 30 minutes study a day –many modules can be down-loaded as MP3 audios to listen to on the way to work! And the cost? Around 88 Pence, or $1.30 a day – rather less than a cup of coffee – a staggeringly small cost for life-changing information!

Key speakers at the London summit include two well-known Marketing and Network Sales specialists from the USA, Jonny Wimbrey and Patrick Powers, together with a further Mystery Guest to be announced shortly. This high-powered trio will show Summit Delegates how to overcome their reservations and obstacles and go from rags to riches in months, using the LogicL system and their new knowledge.

Also presenting at the Summit are Nick Halik – a zero-to-multi-millionaire Stock Trader who is now fulfilling his lifetime dream by training as an Astronaut – and Terry Allen, a former Police Officer, who tells another LogicL success story: “they laughed when I said I was leaving the police service to become a millionaire instead...now I have a multi-million pound property portfolio and a passive income as well”. Allen will show Summit Delegates exactly how they, too, can do for themselves what he has achieved in a few short years.
