London, UK, October 25, 2006 (FPRC) – The leading web-based wealth-creation company, LogicL International and web company iBizCo.com have both pledged support for the Geoff Bone Wheelchair Project to provide wheelchairs to needy people around the world.

Wheelchair-bound Geoff Bone lost his legs in an accident 30 years ago and is so determined to help others around the world like him that he has made it his mission to provide as many of them with wheelchairs as he can. His target is to raise money to provide wheelchairs for 130 MILLION disabled people around the world through his Charity, the Geoff Bone Wheelchair Project – www.geoffbonewheelchariproject.com!

Web-based businesses LogicL International and iBizCo.com have been so impressed with Geoff, that both companies have committed significant financial support to the Wheelchair Project.

In addition to contributing to Save the Children Fund, LogicL International has committed to provide a wheelchair through Geoff's Charity for every customer that signs up for a LogicL Business pack. The packs include set-up of the customer's own offshore company, bank account and cash card, allowing them to draw the earnings from the LogicL business set up when they join LogicL.

John Thornely, CEO of iBizCo.com notes that "Geoff has determination in Spades – he even stopped Bob Geldof in his tracks. I'm so impressed that I've pledged to take NO PROFIT from our collaboration with LogicL until we've paid for a container-load of 550 wheelchairs through the Wheelchair Project – and we'll continue to contribute a proportion of profits thereafter! Our mission is to help people help themselves, and I really can't think of a better cause than helping those who are trapped by circumstances beyond their control.

"And that's where we need help from you, the public, please... If you sign up for LogicL at www.LogicL.net/iBizCo, not only can you change your own life and become financially free in as little as a couple of years – all for less than the cost of a cup of coffee a day – but together we can help Geoff Bone reach his amazing Target!"

Geoff Bone enthused "we need nearly $2Billion to get wheelchairs to all the disabled people around the world that need them, to give them mobility and dignity, and I'm really excited that LogicL and WebBizEducation have so generously pledged their support".

Geoff added "please go along to the LogicL Summit in London on November 4 & 5, where you'll learn how to make huge changes for the better in your own life, as well as helping us to provide wheelchairs to improve the lives of the needy around the world!"
