

Father Xmas' Reindeer Take Xmas off This Year

According to the founder of the leading dating site for dog lovers, www.doglover.biz, Father Xmas's reindeer are taking this Xmas off.

December 2, 2006 (FPRC) -- According to the founder of the leading dating site for dog lovers, www.doglover.biz, Father Xmas's reindeer are taking this Xmas off. Derek Collinson said "For hundreds of years reindeer have tirelessly strived each Xmas to make children's' dreams all over the world come true by delivering presents but this Xmas it was felt that they deserved a well earned rest.

So instead taking the place of Father Xmas's reindeer this Xmas will be dogs. But not just any old dogs a very special breed that are well known for loving everybody especially children, are fun loving and most of all their ability to flush out the best presents for children is legendary - the Spinone Italiano!"

For those of you who have never heard of this breed and would like to see what it looks like just go to www.doglover.biz where you can see two pulling Father Xmas's sleigh and listen to "Jingle Bells."

And if your are a single dog lover who would like to celebrate this Xmas with other single dog lovers you can join www.doglover.biz free and enjoy premium membership until the end of the year!

Premium membership offers the following benefits:

- Free Expert Dating Advice
- Free Expert Dog Care Advice
- Upload image, audio and video files
- Chat instantly with people like you
- Find matches by favourite dog breed
- Find your soulmate and make friends
- Free Ebook to help you find "The One"

Contact Information

For more information contact Derek Collinson of Dog Lover (<http://www.doglover.biz>)
+44 (0)1377 288517

Keywords

dating
single dog lovers
Dog lovers

You can read this press release online here