January 25, 2007 (FPRC) -- The O-H Network founded by Former Ohio State Buckeye star Maurice Hall and Kevin Lloyd in partnership with A.D. Farrow Co. Harley-Davidson is auctioning The Heisman Harley on eBay for Charities. In 2003 the Dealership, A.D. Farrow Co. Harley-Davidson in cooperation with The Ohio State University, created "The Buckeye Bike."

The bike, originally a 100th anniversary Harley-Davidson V-Rod, Now known as "The Heisman Harley" pays tribute to football Buckeyes and all of the Buckeye Heisman Trophy winners with metallic paint, stripes and even "Buckeye Leaves" in the spirit of the helmets worn by the team. The company received the rights to produce 14 such bikes in honor of the Buckeyes' 14-0 National Championship season of 2002 – 2003. Only six have ever been created, including one that was auctioned off to help start the A.D. Farrow Co. / OSU Athletic Scholarship.

The one of a kind Heisman Harley, a 100th anniversary Harley-Davidson V-Rod has been signed by the 3 most recent Heismen Trophy recipients from OSU: Archie Griffin, Eddie George and Troy Smith making this bike a rare collector's item. The bike was listed Tuesday, January 24, 2007 on eBay and portions of the proceeds will benefit Children's Hospital of Columbus, OH, National Alliance African American Athletes, Second and Seven Foundation.
