

There is Nothin Like a (Dog Loving) Dame

Well at least that's the view of the founder of the leading dating site for dog lovers - www.doglover.biz. Derek Collinson says "I believe (dog loving) dames are passionate, loyal open, kind, and sensitive and have a great sense of humour and I should know - I married one!" "Perhaps that's why they love dogs because dogs too have these qualities in abundance and they welcome them as kindred spirits!"

January 29, 2007 (FPRC) -- "Well known dog lovers such as Pamela Anderson, Bridget Bardot, Jennifer Aniston, Audrey Hepburn, Alicia Silverstone, Bo Derek, Jane Seymour and Janet Jackson to mention but a few prove that when it comes to attractive women, there is nothin like a (dog loving) dame!"

Since www.doglover.biz started just over six months ago single dog lovers both male and female have joined from all over the world. Americans in particular are continuing to join every single day in increasing numbers - hardly surprising when it is estimated there are over 40 million single dog owners in America.

Derek echoes what many members have already said "Why should they settle for anything less than a soul mate who understands and can share their passion for their treasured pooches when they can find one on Doglover.biz!"

At the moment there are more women than men members and Derek would like to see this change so that there is a 50/50 split. "We are conducting an ongoing marketing campaign and would like to increase the awareness of Doglover.biz especially with single male dog lovers." Doglover.biz is currently offering a 7 day free trial of its Premium Membership to encourage dog lovers to try the service and hopes that this offer will appeal to the many single male dog lovers that are out there looking for a soul mate.

And Derek adds "dog lovers male and female will find every conceivable match making feature here to make that special connection with someone who shares their passion for dogs including mail-match, flirts, chat rooms, instant messenger, audio, video and image upload, forums, blogs, invite friends to your social network and flirts as well as sending and receiving emails"

"In addition they will be able to get advice from the leading experts in dating, dog behaviour, dog health and dog communication as well as the latest news about dating and dogs from around the world updated daily."

Dogs too benefit because Doglover.biz is donating 20% of membership subscriptions to dog rescue - something that is very close to Derek's heart since he and his wife already own two rescue dogs from Limerick Animal Welfare as well as a Spinone called Findlay.

So you single male dog lovers out there why not logon to Doglover.biz today and share your passion - after all there is nothin' you can name that is anythin' like a (dog loving) dame!
