

Buy Goods Online and Support Your Cause

Organizations, both 501(c) Charities and those not registered can sign up for free. Members of these organizations, and non-members can sign on, go to the online store and select from 100's of brand name national merchants to purchase goods and services. A percentage of the purchase goes back to the cause of the customers choice. Transactions are tracked.

Linwood, NJ (FPRC) May 29, 2007 -- Electronic Global Online Resources (EGOR) LLC, an internet marketing company has recently launched the website ForYourCause.com. ForYourCause.com has established relationships with hundreds of merchants to provide an alternative way to raise funds for any charity or cause. Consumers purchasing products online can do their shopping through ForYourCause.com, purchase the same products for the same price and have a portion of that purchase be directed to the charity of their choice.

ForYourCause.com leverages EGOR's online marketing experience to provide a fund raising solution that taps into the 400 Billion dollars that was spent online in 2006 (Resource). Al Luciani, Director of Business Development, says, "Online shopping is the way of the future, we have combined fund raising and consumerism into one unique concept." Visit www.ForYourCause.com to enroll yourself as a consumer, or enroll your charity to benefit from this simple and free revolutionizing fund raising process.

There is absolutely no cost associated for a Cause or Charity to sign up for the services provided by www.ForYourCause.com. The prices of the products are exactly the same as the prices on the merchants websites and the causes can receive up to 10% of each purchase. For More information contact Dennis Sher at EGOR, LLC at 609-927-2300 or email at dsher@egor-corporate.com

###

Contact Information

For more information contact Dennis Sher of <http://> (<http://>)
609-927-2300

Keywords

Fundraising

You can read this press release online here