

8 Night Mexico Getaway to Cancun and Puerto Vallarta for 2 Grand Opening Give-A-Way by New SPTC Auction Web Site on Independence Day

Announcing July 4th Grand Opening of the New SouthPoleTradingCompany.com Auction Web Site. Free Vacations to every member with the first listing in the Gallery and a Grand Prize 8 Night Mexico Getaway to Cancun and Puerto Vallarta for 2 giveaway.

Las Vegas, Nevada (FPRC) June 7, 2007 -- SouthPoleTradingCompany.com (SPTC) will officially launch it's new online auction web site service July 4th, 2007, and will giveaway a grand prize 8 Night Mexico Getaway to Cancun and Puerto Vallarta for 2 as part of the official Grand Opening celebration. The auction services web site will be free to join for everyone, will offer free listing services for the live auctions and will reward every member with a free vacation with their first gallery listing of any service or item.

The SouthPoleTradingCompany.com auction web site will use a searchable database system with over 5,000 categories to list services or items for sell via Buy Now, Dutch Auctions or Reverse Auctions online. The listing of services or items on the SouthPoleTradingCompany.com auction web site will be fast and very simple using a one click method on a listing page. Member account set up and adding account funds will be secure and easy using either PayPal, Certified Checks or Money Orders. Each new account will be issued a $5.00 account credit at signing up. Current features include, but are not limited to, main page featured auctions, gallery auctions, big ticket items, buy it now, detailed help pages, easy access support and sales phone numbers, security and resolution help center, rotating banner system for advertisers, and an affiliate program. Sellers will have the ability to showcase their service(s) or item(s) with a picture or pictures, use bold type, colors, or html. the listed service or items are shown with a count down timer clock that ticks down the days, hours, minutes, and seconds, until the service or item is either sold or the timer expires. The auctions can be set to run over a few hours to many days, with the ability to have the service or item automatically re-list itself if not sold within the allotted time.

"Our goal is to help sellers gain their independence from the nickel and dime fees and monthly fees many major auction services currently charge. Our fees are among the lowest in the business and will remain that way, allowing for anyone to get started selling services or items online in a matter of minutes. We will also reward our members with vacations and other gifts monthly." said Shawn McShane, CEO of SouthPoleTradingCompany.com. "For the Grand Opening on July 4th, we are giving away a Grand Prize 8 Night Mexico Getaway to Cancun and Puerto Vallarta for 2. Let me state for the record that to be eligible for the grand prize the member needs to be signed up and have a service or item listed prior to July 4th."

For added security the SouthPoleTradingCompany.com auction web site will allow members to become verified as a personal account holder, a business account holder or both so at a glance other members can see who is verified and who is not.

"The goal here is to be able to have members present services or items in a way that shows potential buyers the seller has actually been verified by SouthPoleTradingCompany.com to be exactly are who they claim to be. This results in more buyer confidence making both sellers and buyers happy. We will continue to add more features, services and funding sources over time." said David Jackson, member services director for SouthPoleTradingCompany.com. "We are looking to stand fast in the auction services business by offering members less fees the other auction services online today while rewarding members for using the services. We are new to the online auction business, but we have a wealth of online customer to customer, business to business experience, with an excellent customer reputation and record for satisfaction, quality services and support."

For additional information on the news that is the subject of this South Pole Trading Company release contact Shawn McShane or visit www.SouthPoleTradingCompany.com or www.sptc.biz.

About SouthPoleTradingCompany.com (SPTC): SouthPoleTradingCompany.com (SPTC) is a secure, live auction web site, designed, hosted, owned and operated by the WebHostingOasis.com web services division.

About WebHostingOasis.com: www.WebHostingOasis.com is a fully automated, secure business web site hosting, design and marketing service successfully operated since 2002 and a division of GMS iSolutions, Inc, providing online business services world wide since 1998. GMS and will continue to provide the same quality and satisfaction to the SPTC Auction services division as it has proven to provide in it's web hosting and business related services divisions worldwide.

Contact Information

For more information contact Shawn McShane of SouthPoleTradingCompany.com (<http://www.southpoletradingcompany.com>)
702-939-1413

Keywords

auction site
online auctions
auction

You can read this press release online here