

Women's Basketball Buzz

Coverage of the competitions will be exclusively covered for international users on top and leading website for women's basketball news, Women's Basketball Buzz.

September 10, 2007 (FPRC) -- This summer women's basketball is being taken to a higher level with FIBA Championships in preparation and qualification for the Beijing 2008 Olympics. A big source of information for the news and updates in English about Women's Basketball news is WBUZZ. Women's Basketball Buzz which established and opened its doors at (<http://www.wbbuzz.com>) this summer is providing exclusive coverage for these events. Idea had long become in the mind of owner and senior writer, Sylita Thomas years ago but only until has she opened the doors.

From hosting basketball videos, interviews, basketball scores, basketball signings and news from all continents where women's basketball is available at WBUZZ (<http://www.wbbuzz.com>). The gap is being filled for websites that only offer up to date news about basketball news from girls high school basketball, youth international basketball, college women's basketball, semi professional basketball, professional basketball internationally (USA, Europe, Africa, Australia, Asia).

Contributors worldwide are eagerly providing news in areas which are covered locally and special coverage areas. Top contributor Leslie C. from Great Britain is a top writer who has covered many Women's FIBA competitions and writes for EUROBASKET. Also, other correspondents from Poland, Finland, Spain, Italy and USA are providing news daily. All news and information is welcomed by all visitors and users to help with the growth of Women's Basketball Buzz. "This is the time for players, fans, coaches, teams and leagues to connect and view news better than they ever have before", adds Sylita Thomas.

Visit WBBUZZ daily for women's basketball news, photos, videos and scores. All of the information is free and welcome to the public. Other features coming is a toolbar for updates for website browsers such as Internet Explorer, Firefox and other popular browsers; community forum for commentary and communication; user submitted articles and updates; and drills and a coaches corner.

Contact Information

For more information contact Sylita Thomas of Women's Basketball Buzz
(<http://www.wbbuzz.com>)
+1.804.451.1339

Keywords

womens basketball

eurobasket women 2007

2008 Beijing Olympics Basketball

You can read this press release online here