November 20, 2007 (FPRC) -- World Hunger Problems Solved by Abundance Awareness

The first annual Abundance Awareness Day will take place at the Scottsdale Center for the Performing Arts, Virginia G. Piper Theater located at 7380 East 2nd Street in Scottsdale, Arizona. The event will take place on Saturday, December 8, 2007 starting at 7 PM and will include a lecture on the Law of Attraction theory, artist performances and an atrium event. Tickets for this program are free and can be requested at www.visualizeworldabundance.com.

According to Nina Myers, founder of international on-line cooking community www.fishfordish.com, "To end world hunger we must first create a vision of a world free from hunger. We must do that by empowering men and especially women to realize their true potential." Nina's online video cooking community shares how her awareness of food abundance sparked her passion and commitment to end world hunger. Nina discovered the book The Secret and made a very bold statement "I will end world hunger in my lifetime."

The featured speaker at this event will be Nicholas Tutora, Law of Attraction expert. Tutora will discuss the powerful connection between Law of Attraction awareness and creating large scale transformations. This theory states that whatever a person focuses on, it will automatically be attracted into their life; there are no exceptions. Tutora will discuss how this theory can effect change when focusing on world solutions rather than problems. The paradigm between world abundance and world hunger will also be explored. Nicholas Tutora is a certified consultant with Bob Proctor, featured in the bestselling book and DVD The Secret.
