December 7, 2007 (FPRC) --

Free to read: new ebook takes the sting out of starting up abroad...

"Starting a Business in France" by Richard Whiting is a step-by-step guide for Francophile entrepreneurs, providing all the information needed to achieve business success in France. Www.Webooks.co.uk offers the full online text published by How To books, covering everything from preliminary research right through to managing revenue. Chapters featured include:

- Conducting market research
- The business plan
- Loans and finance
- Avoiding pitfalls
- Making and managing money

The book is free to read online, and there is no need to register.

Richard Whiting has been living and working in France for over 20 years. He has dealt with a variety of recent and established businesses and their proprietors, promoting his companies' business-to-business services and selling residential property.

On the Webooks site users can check out the author's blog, chat to other prospective entrepreneurs in the forum, and find useful websites in the directory. A PDF version of the ebook is also available to download from the online store.

This online "WeBook" is the first in a series of more than 200 books that will go online during the coming months, as part of an initiative to revolutionise the print publishing industry.

Visitors can sign up to the newsletter, to receive alerts when new titles are added to the online library.
