

New Precious Metals Business, StreamLine Gold, Set To Embark Across The World Wide Web

StreamLine Gold is literally what it says; it can provide an opportunity for unlimited income through the combination of Precious Metals and Cash

December 11, 2007 (FPRC) -- Accumulating Gold and Silver has a sense of security, they are real. 'Silver' and 'Gold' aren't just names for companies, they are tangible objects that you can hold and feel the value of. Gold and Silver are substance and therein lies their power. This is exactly why Don McElmurry developed and started the StreamLine Gold (SLG) online business opportunity, which can be viewed at ManifestCashNow.info.

"Since the time of Babylon, Gold and Silver has always been money. When placing hard earned dollars to start a business like SLG, you're placing your money into something solid, something real. Real objects like precious metals is something real, something tangible and should be part of everyone's portfolio," states founding SLG member Chad Hershey of the Pinnacle Group.

Mr. Hershey continues, "The U.S. Dollar has lost 70% of its value against other major currencies since the United States went off the gold standard in 1971. Gold and silver cannot be 'made', as opposed to company products. This simplifies the supply and demand way of thinking, because there is a fixed supply. All that you have to worry about is the demand, and when isn't the demand for precious metals high, especially in today's day and age!"

Apart from the high use of Gold in jewelry, Gold is also used in dentistry, (for gold crowns) embroidery, (to make threads with), electronics, (in connectors on wires) and as a coating on satellites and astronauts' helmets. Silver is used even more, in cutlery, mirrors, in medicine, as a food additive, and even to make polymers in clothes.

Mr. Hershey concludes, "The precious metals market is set to explode and for as little as $50, SLG members can be a part of this growth and share in the massive profits that will be created. SLG is here at the right time, and the time is right for SLG."
