January 2, 2008 (FPRC) -- Atlanta, GA – Spring is the time for new beginnings and new hope – just the perfect time to celebrate the love and joy of a new marriage! Now, My Wedding Favors captures the essence of fresh warm breezes and the bloom of young flowers growing with its new collection of Spring-themed wedding favors.

Ranging from the whimsically charming to the charmingly useful, all the favors in the collection come gift-packaged and ready to delight wedding reception guests with little or no assembly necessary. Some of the gifts are organic, some are sweetly sturdy, and all are made to keep memories fresh for years to come.

Some of the springtime gifts include:

- Combining elegance with useful versatility, the Miniature Glass Basket with Silver Handle and Trim perfectly holds any kind of treat in its scalloped bowl. A "Thank You" note completes its delightful presentation.
- A complete selection of placecard holders infused with a springtime design, including calla lilies, flip-flops, flowerpots, and other delightful items. Guests can use them as photo holders after the celebrations come to a close.
- Plenty of elegant yet lively springtime candles and tealight votives, to shine a warm light on warm spring evenings! Each one is delicately designed to create the ultimate in romantic spring ambience, whether at the reception or in the guests' homes later.
- Edible favors such as delicious mints in customized and personal tins, gourmet cookies shaped like garden watering cans, and real water cans stuffed full of delicious homemade cookies. Each one includes gift packaging suitable for the occasion and a delightful springtime motif.

The Springtime Favor Collection can be found on its own category page on My Wedding Favors' main site. The collection joins My Wedding Favors' catalogue of thousands of elegant wedding favors and wedding accessories, including many "themed" collections for special design sensibilities.
