

Something For Everyone, Happily Ever After

Online wedding favor & wedding gift idea boutique features princess favors and wedding accessories specially designed for the trendy fairy tale themed wedding.

January 23, 2008 (FPRC) -- Atlanta, GA – Once upon a time becomes happily ever after, and then it's time for the wedding reception! Now, My Wedding Favors celebrates each happy ending with a new line of specially designed wedding favors crafted especially for the fairy tale-themed wedding.

With a unique emphasis on combining whimsical charm with startlingly lovely elegance, the fairy tale collection was gathered from My Wedding Favors' international array of designers and favor ensembles, so that each favor appeals to the modern bride's discerning tastes. The theme may be a flight of fantasy, but the details of these favors make sure every bride can present them to her guests with total peace of mind.

In fact, many of the favors, including the Happily Ever After Carriage Candle and Silver Silhouette Placecard Holders, evoke the classic symbols of fairy tale romance, including enchanted horse drawn carriages, misty castles, silver tiaras, and princess slippers.

Other favors include:

- A variety of candles and tealight votives that commemorate all the finery of a formal Cinderella ball, including elegant gowns and teacup-shaped candles.
- Placecard holders elegantly shaped like a bejeweled tiara or silver plated wedding cake, each one perfect for any guest setting.
- Favor bags shaped like brides and grooms, so that every bride can make a personal "appearance" in spirit at every guest table, treating everyone to her choice of candies, mints, or many more favor suggestions.
- Ring bearer pillow sachets with a lilting scent, each one perfect for brightening up closets, drawers, cars, or many more locales.

Many of the favors come delightfully packaged in showcase gift boxes with thank you tags, so that the presentation is virtually as charming as the evening's celebrations.

The fairy tale favor collection can be found on its own special page within the My Wedding Favors web page. The ensemble joins their catalogue of thousands of elegant wedding favors and wedding accessories, including many "themed" collections for special motifs and design sensibilities.
