

Cash Gifting: Largest Online SCAM?

People have been taken. They have been lied to. They have had their money literally stolen from their pockets. Scam artists flooded the postal service first and then the Internet with bogus programs that never delivered the goodwill and helpfulness that they promised.

January 27, 2008 (FPRC) -- RESTON, VA – For years now, Americans and Canadians have been poisoned against the concept of cash gifting. It has become known as one of the biggest scams of history. People have been taken. They have been lied to. They have had their money literally stolen from their pockets. Scam artists flooded the postal service first and then the Internet with bogus programs that never delivered the goodwill and helpfulness that they promised.

The vast majority of modern cash gifting programs are in fact scams. There's no doubt about it. That doesn't change the fact that there are a select few programs in existence that still care about integrity and honesty. They care about the concept of sharing wealth to help those who are seeking assistance. Everyone needs help sometimes. The concept of sowing and reaping is age-old. It is timeless. Nothing has changed. Cash gifting has entered a new realm of integrity. Its name is LiveToProsper.biz.

Demetrios Tzortzis is the owner and esteemed developer of the site. He has based his life of philanthropy. He understands that thousands of lives are benefited every year by engaging in his innovative and safe program. He states, "The EZ1Up system that the program operates with is based on simplicity and the rapid recovery of funds invested. There is a constantly monitored database in place to track all system activity. It is impossible to be cheated." Tzortzis extends personal mentoring every step of the way through the program. He states, "The downfall with most cash gifting programs is that they are only supportive until you invest; then they leave you hung out to dry."

With the EZ1Up system at LiveToProsper.biz, Tzortzis implements a proven blueprint to success for participants. He states enthusiastically, "I coach people through all aspects of promotion for the program – both online and offline. Many inferior programs do not allow for online promotion. That is a pitfall to look for. The Internet is powerful! It needs to be harnessed as a marketing medium, and I show people the way." The program continues to develop impressive, provable statistics on a daily basis.

LiveToProsper.biz exists to dispel these harmful myths that pertain to a concept embraced by humanity since the beginning of time. Tzortzis says, "As human beings, we gain value within ourselves through sharing - giving to others in need. We are taught since birth that it is good to help those who are less fortunate than ourselves. By law, we are granted the right to share our assets and possessions with others as we feel they deserve. Since time began, it makes people feel good to help others. It makes us feel good to share."

Tzortzis further states, "A new day is here! The scam is over." Rediscover the vast array of benefits that can be gained when you engage a program of mutual sharing with like-minded individuals that wish to increase their wealth and the wealth of others. Rediscover humanity. Rediscover the concept of giving. Release your fears and embrace the future. Visit www.LiveToProsper.biz today
