February 28, 2008 (FPRC) -- Today Triality Business Solutions has announced that Chris Menard, the owner and president of Triality, recently achieved Microsoft Certified Application Specialist Instructor. Microsoft Certified Application Specialist Instructor is the highest level of certification possible for the world's leading desktop software - Microsoft Office.

Chris, who was also the world's first Microsoft Office Specialist Master Instructor of Office XP, 2000 and 97, has now successfully completed the certification to be a Microsoft Certified Application Specialist Instructor. To get certification Chris had to take and pass the following Microsoft Office System exams: Using Microsoft Office Word 2007, Using Microsoft Office Excel 2007, Using Microsoft Office PowerPoint 2007, Using Microsoft Office Outlook 2007, Windows Vista for the Business Worker and Using Microsoft Office Access 2007.

"Companies seeking an instructor for Office 2007 training should seek a Microsoft Certified Application Specialist Instructor" says Menard, who is also a featured training provider on Microsoft's Training web site. Chris added that "Because of the MCAS Instructor certification, I trained the Business Intelligence Group of Coca-Cola in Atlanta in Excel 2007 and spoke to Certified Public Accountants (CPAs) on the benefits of Microsoft Excel 2007."

While employed by Clayton State University as a corporate trainer (from 1997 to 2002), Chris found it difficult to convince potential corporate trainees of his expertise. To gain corporate recognition Menard has earned and continues to achieve the highest levels of Microsoft certification.

Menard has an impressive list of clients, including Coca-Cola, Mimms Enterprises, Chick-Fil-A, Atlanta Spirit, Philips Lighting, the Georgia Society of CPAs, and Smith, Welch and Brittain. He is confident that his new certification will bring even more on-site training with large companies and clients to his Stockbridge, Georgia training lab.
