

Radisson Launches First All Inclusive Orlando Vacation Resorts for Groups

Meeting planners, event planners, and vacationers now have more exciting options for booking an Orlando meeting hotels with the launch of the cities first all-inclusive resort for groups.

March 20, 2008 (FPRC) -- Orlando, FL – Radisson’s Celebration Resort is the first among Orlando vacation resorts to offer all-inclusive programs for groups. The Orlando Celebration offers a full resort-style experience for large groups with everything included from rooms, to recreation, to a full menu of food and all drinks.

The resort style property features 718 rooms over 24 tropical acres featuring pools, hot tubs, a fitness center, tennis courts, and a 40 foot waterslide. Daily entertainment is offered both poolside and throughout the resort.

The Radisson Resort Orlando Celebration is the only all-inclusive resort among the city’s selection of Orlando meeting hotels. The Orlando Celebration is designed to provide all-inclusive services to mid-sized and large groups attending for events, conferences, vacations, and weddings.

Celebration is currently the only one of the all-inclusive hotels near Disney positioned to handle large tourism groups. In addition to the hotel’s close proximity to Walt Disney World, the resort also offers several Orlando vacation packages designed for the traveler who wishes to experience Orlando’s many attractions.

The hotel offers several options for dining including the newly redesigned Mandolins Restaurant serving Italian style family dinners, Cascades Poolside Bar & Grille, a Sports Lounge, and the Parkway Deli/Diner.

Meeting planning facilities at the Radisson Resort Orlando-Celebration include a 6,270 square foot ballroom, up to 6 technology-ready meeting rooms, theater style classrooms, and executive boardroom. Two scenic pool areas and a gazebo are designed for picturesque receptions and themed buffets.

“Our all-inclusive packages can also include meeting space and beautiful outdoor event space for welcome receptions and dinners. Our experienced catering team is here to help planners coordinate the needs of groups of several hundred guests in a party,” says Steve Crist of Radisson Orlando Celebration.

Hotel rates for groups of 25 or more start at $99.00 per person plus taxes based on double occupancy.

About The Radisson Resort Orlando – Celebration: The Orlando Celebration is an Orlando vacation resort situated on 20 acres of lush tropically landscaped grounds and conveniently located only 1.5 miles from Walt Disney World. The resort features an Activities Program that consists of a variety of events for all ages, including scheduled live entertainment, dive in movies under the stars, diving for spoons, cannon ball contests, hula hoop contests, poolside bingo, live music poolside, scavenger hunts, magic shows, water aerobics, and much, much more.

Contact Information

For more information contact Steve Crist of Radisson Resort Orlando
(<http://www.visitthemagic.com/>)
407-390-3907

Keywords

Orlando vacation resorts

Orlando meeting hotels

hotels near Disney

You can read this press release online here