

Sightseeing Tours Company Offers “My Taxes are Done!” Vacation Ideas and 2 Ways to Win A Handheld GPS

Discount attraction tickets company Trusted Tours.com offers bloggers, travelers, and “my taxes are done” vacationers two ways to win a handheld GPS in the company’s new April contest.

April 15, 2008 (FPRC) -- Trusted Tours and Attractions, a leading provider of discount attraction tickets, sightseeing tours and vacation packages, will give away a handheld GPS to one of its new or current newsletter subscribers. To be eligible to win the handheld GPS, participants need only to be subscribed to the Trusted Travel eNewsletter or blog about the contest by April 30th, 2008.

“Bloggers can double their odds of winning the handheld GPS by writing about the most interesting Tax Relief trip they have taken,” says John Stavely, Director of Historic Entertainment at Trusted Tours.

To double their odds of winning the handheld GPS, bloggers must link to the Trusted Tours Newsletter page in their post. Once bloggers have written a post about their Tax Relief adventure and signed up for the newsletter, they can send an email to jstavely @ trustedtours.com, with a link to their post to be immediately entered into the drawing for the handheld GPS.

The contest to win the handheld GPS ends on April 30th. One winner will be randomly chosen from the list of email subscribers and blog entry contestants on May 1, 2008. No purchase is necessary to win.

In addition to a chance to win the prize, newsletter subscribers will also receive the Trusted Tours monthly email newsletter filled with specials on family vacation ideas, vacation packages, sightseeing tours, and other useful travel related information. The Trusted Tours Travel Guide is a companion travel blog that offers fun and informative travel adventures, photos and advice.

New tours, attractions and cities are being added all the time. Phoenix, Arizona is a new city offering with exciting excursions to Sedona, the Grand Canyon and Desert ATV tours.

As the online travel industry grows, Trusted Tours continues to prove itself as one of the most popular and trusted travel information providers. In order to help travelers make informed decisions, every sightseeing tour is reviewed and rated by objective parties. Additionally, every customer that purchases a ticket at Trusted Tours is encouraged to rate their experience to ensure that Trusted Tours & Attractions continues to sell only the best sightseeing tours and vacation packages.
