

New Web Traffic Generation Company, ASD Ad Cash Generator, Pays Its Members To Advertise

ASD Ad Cash Generator was developed to fill the gap in today's home based business arena, allowing everyone to earn a solid monthly income.

May 5, 2008 (FPRC) -- Mr. Andy Bowdoin started his sales career working with the Dale Carnegie Courses in the early sixties and later worked with the Napoleon Hill Leadership Program. In 1999, Andy did research and discovered a need for GPS Tracking for fleet vehicles and GPS Tech was created. Finally in 2006, Andy again saw a new opportunity - the need for a unique way to deliver advertising to the masses and ASD Ad Cash Generator was born. He quickly assembled a team of 100+ associates who have joined with him to create what will become the largest Internet Advertising Company in history.

Together with his attorneys, Andy has developed a premier marketing and advertising system where members purchase ad packages. These ad packages allow members to advertise their websites and also allow them to earn 125% on their ad package purchase. Members actually earn a 25% profit on their purchase by receiving daily rebates from the company, as seen at ManifestYourFortune.com.

"This company is different and is about change. There are many opportunities online today and many more people who have lost money with these opportunities. In my opinion ASD is head & shoulders above anything else. This is a program where everyone gets a chance to earn money working only 20 minutes per day," states Chad Hershey, independent marketing executive with ASD Ad Cash Generator.

Mr. Hershey concludes, "This is not some program where you have to go out and enroll people into your business to make money. In fact even if you NEVER enroll a single other soul in your business, you will still earn an income from your advertising. What do you have to do? Surf other ads for approximately 10 to 20 minutes each day and earn a very nice income for doing so...that's it!
