

Number of Orlando Businesses For Sale Grows: Economy Increases Opportunities for Entrepreneurs

Six new Orlando businesses for sale listed by Crowne Atlantic Properties mean big opportunities for investors and entrepreneurs.

May 7, 2008 (FPRC) -- Orlando, FL -- Crowne Atlantic Properties, LLC, an Orlando business brokerage firm, has added six new Orlando businesses for sale to its online database.

Doubts about the economy have resulted in an increased number of business buyers searching for unique business opportunities. These buyers are investors and entrepreneurs and they are searching for low-priced deals on Orlando commercial property and businesses for sale.

The new Orlando businesses for sale range from $69,000 for an Orange County based café to a $3.5 million Florida manufacturing company.

Crowne Atlantic Properties offers a complete suite of resources for those looking for information on how to buy a business in Orlando. The company's database includes an information-rich data sheet about each of the Orlando businesses for sale in the Crowne Atlantic Properties database including:

- Business sale price
- Photos
- Down payment amount
- Annual sales
- Annual net profit
- Business description
- Accounts receivable
- Inventory
- FF&E
- Leasehold
- Real estate value
- Total assets

"Investors like to work with us because they know that our business brokers have consulted with the seller first, have valued the business properly, have coached the seller on how to sell a business in Orlando, and can offer an objective opinion on the business's strengths and weaknesses. When they initiate a purchase through Crowne Atlantic, they know they are getting a solid deal," says Archie Ossin, Broker, Crowne Atlantic Properties, LLC.

Crowne Atlantic Properties not only provides expert consulting services for first time business sellers, but also coaches new buyers about buying a business in Orlando. The company's online resources and one-on-one consultation services help buyers make informed decisions and navigate the buying process easily.
