

Orlando Hotel Deals: Grandparents Stay Free at the Orlando Vista Hotel

Grandparents and children can spend quality time and save money on Orlando hotels and Disney World vacation packages at the Orlando Vista Hotel located in Lake Buena Vista during the 'Grandparents Stay Free' promotion.

May 7, 2008 (FPRC) -- Orlando, FL -- Families searching for deals on Orlando hotels now have more ways to save during the Orlando Vista Hotel 'Grandparent's Stay Free' vacation promotion. This special deal for grandparents is available to all families who book a $99 per night Kid's Club Suite.

To take advantage of this special offer, guests need only to enter the promotional code "GPPRO" on the Orlando Vista Hotel website when making online reservations.

"Our goal is to make special time with children and grandparents more affordable. This vacation package provides a unique opportunity for the entire family to spend quality time together and the price leaves lots left over for having fun in the park," says Jim Enos, General Manager for the Orlando Vista Hotel.

In addition to a free stay, guests will also enjoy:

- Complimentary high-speed Internet access in lobby
- Kid's club suites, designed for children
- Club Room, with office, café, and lounge
- Au Bon Pain, on-site bakery and café
- Self-service business center
- Complimentary fitness facility

The Orlando Vista Hotel also offers additional deals on Disney World vacation packages including the '4-Day Magic Your Way' package (promotional code D3W) and the Florida Resident Rate (promotional code FRR). More information about these Orlando hotel deals can be found on the Orlando Vista Hotel website.
