

NiteLites Outdoor Lighting, the Architectural and Landscape Lighting Professionals, Announces New Warehouse Manager

NiteLites Outdoor Lighting named Mitch Balazs as Warehouse Manager at their world headquarters in Dayton, OH. NiteLites is an industry leader in the low voltage outdoor landscape lighting field, and specializes in both residential and commercial lighting projects.

May 28, 2008 (FPRC) -- NiteLites Outdoor Lighting, the architectural and landscape lighting professionals, has appointed Mitch Balazs to the position of warehouse manager in the NiteLites corporate office located at 6107 Market Avenue in Franklin, Ohio. In his new position, Mr. Balazs will also be responsible for quality control for NiteLites' products. Mr. Balazs has worked a variety of warehouse positions in his career, including shipping/receiving, parts and service, and warehouse management.

Mr. Balazs joined NiteLites because he was looking for a growing and respected company with a bright future. He was also looking for a position that allowed him to assume a large amount of responsibility for the assigned duties. He feels his experience and talents will allow him to have an impact on NiteLites and that he will be able to provide a number of benefits to NiteLites, and to the NiteLites franchisees.

When he is not managing the NiteLites' warehouse, Mr. Balazs enjoys outdoor activities such as fishing, camping, and sailing his 1968 redbird sailboat. He is also a trained motorcycle mechanic and enjoys racing in amateur AMA events. In addition, he plays guitar and harmonica in a blues jam band, loves the Ohio State Buckeyes, and is a diehard Jimmy Buffett fan.

NiteLites has been in business since 1998, and its sole business is providing professionally designed, installed, and serviced outdoor lighting systems for residential and commercial properties. This lighting company only installs high quality, energy efficient, low voltage fixtures and transformers which are manufactured to their exact specifications. The company's lighting fixtures are both attractive and rugged as they are cast of brass and copper with acid-etched finishes that will not crack or peel. This national outdoor lighting franchise also provides an industry leading warranty on its outdoor lighting systems for both commercial and residential lighting applications.
