

Jeff Miller Signs With Colt Records

Colt Records today announced the signing of Jeff Miller to a new 2 year recording contract.

June 4, 2008 (FPRC) -- Nashville, TN - Colt Records is proud to welcome the latest addition to our roster of fine entertainers Jeff Miller. Jeff one of the East Coasts hottest young country artists is now prepared to make the leap onto national & international country music scene.

Jeff Millers music has been compared to everyone from the likes of Bob Seger to Phil Vassar and many in between but it would best be described as roots country music with an edge and his style is much similar in nature to John Mellancamp.

Jeff also finds time to write almost all of his songs himself. Nine of the ten songs on his upcoming release were either written or co-written by Jeff. This ability to write as well as perform gives him a very firm foundation for a long and highly successful career.

Colt Records President J. K Coltrain said that Andy has a very unique vocal style and the ability to deliver a song as very few can. Plus he is an outstanding songwriter and guitarist to boot:) So be sure and keep your radio tuned to your favorite country station and listen up for Jeff Millers music. The first single entitled 'Meant To Be' should be coming to radio about the middle part of July. You can visit Jeff on the web at;
