

Tee Time Media is Proud to Announce the TeeSponsor

New way to market to the ideal customer, the golfer!

June 9, 2008 (FPRC) -- Tee Time Media is excited about the TeeSponsor; our patentpending tee box divider which provides the ideal advertising medium for targeting the affluent golfing community. Golf course advertising allows you to reach a targeted, affluent market the golfer. As the popularity of golf continues to grow, Tee Time Media has developed an exciting new way to help target this affluent community. The TeeSponsor provides a functional addition to driving and practice ranges. "We are very pleased to announce this new golf facility marketing product," said Robert Scherer, President of Tee Time Media "We felt there was an opportunity for marketing to golfers at the practice range, while providing an attractive tee divider for the golf facility"

Put your name on TeeSponsor and promote your company! Whether it is for national club fit tours or manufacturer demo days. The TeeSponsor is a great way to promote an upcoming event, service, or your product to your target audience while they are on the driving range.

The TeeSponsor has exchangeable message panels, which enables you to create custom messages for each specific event. The TeeSponsor is made from durable molded plastic that has been designed to stand up to the elements no matter what kind of climate they are located in.

Tee Time Media is actively seeking dealers nationwide to promote the TeeSponsor to businesses and golf facilities throughout the United States.
