

Trusted Tours And Attractions' June Contest Rewards Summer Travelers & Bloggers For Sharing Their Vacation Ideas

Trusted Tours.com, discount tour and attraction ticket company, is offering summer travelers and bloggers the chance to win a Handheld GPS in their new June contest.

June 16, 2008 (FPRC) -- KEY WEST, FL - Trusted Tours and Attractions, an industry leader in the discount travel industry, has announced an online contest that will reward one of its newsletter subscribers or contest bloggers with a Handheld GPS.

To be eligible for entry into the contest, participants must either subscribe to Trusted Tours discount vacation ideas newsletter that delivers monthly insights and special offers for travel destinations, or blog about the contest on their blog and link to the newsletter. Entries for the contest close on June 30th, 2008.

"Word of mouth is an important source of information for travelers. They want to get vacation ideas from someone who has been there. Our bloggers play an important part in this, which is why we're offering them double the chance at winning when they blog about the most interesting summer travel trip they have taken," said John Stavely, Director of Historic Entertainment at Trusted Tours (<http://www.trustedtours.com>).

Doubling the chance of winning for bloggers requires them to mention the Trusted Tours Newsletter page in their post about a memorable summer travel experience. For instant entry into the contest, once the blog has been posted and bloggers have subscribed to the newsletter, an email with the link to their post should be sent to jstavely @ trustedtours.com.

The winner of the contest will be randomly drawn from the list of email subscribers and blog entrants on June 31st 2008. The winner will be notified via email. No purchase is required to win.

"We ensure that our business practice is synonymous with our name by guaranteeing that each sightseeing tour is objectively reviewed on our website. Every customer who has purchased a ticket through Trusted Tours is also encouraged to rate and review their travel experience so that others can make informed decisions," said Stavely.

The Trusted Tours.com offers customers easy and safe online ticketing for a variety of sightseeing tours, attractions and museums -- from San Diego Zoo tickets to trolley tours of Boston. Their monthly newsletter showcases insider travel knowledge gained only through first-hand experience and typically focuses on a specific destination each month like Atlanta attractions or Chicago things to do. In addition to the newsletter, the Trusted Tours Travel Guide blog offers fun and informative travel adventures, photos and advice.
