September 15, 2008 (FPRC) -- Engraved Well Gifts (engravedwell.com), the net's premiere source of personalized and engraved gift ideas, announces the additions of several new products to their fall catalog. A recognized leader in e-commerce gift shopping since 2006, Engraved Well gifts offers unique, personalized gifts for birthdays, weddings, holidays -- just about any occasion.

"We always put customer satisfaction first," says Francis Gilliland, owner and CEO of Engraved Well Gifts. "One way we do this is to ensure that our products are of the finest quality. We want our customers to keep coming back to us, so we make sure they're happy."

Some of the new fall additions include a 300 chip professional poker set with case, several different kinds of beer mugs including a beer stein, sports mug and a grand pilsner glass, and a line of "I Survived!" bachelor party t-shirts. More new additions can be viewed on their website at http://www.engravedwell.com/cart.php?m=new\_arrivals. All of the gifts can be personalized with a custom engraving of the customer's choice.

"We're excited about our new additions for the fall," says Gilliland. "The new products allow us to expand our catalog to include just about any kind of present for an enormous variety of gift-giving events. Birthdays, Bachelor Parties, Weddings - you name it, we have a gift for it. And a gift you can personalize! We are proud to offer the absolute lowest prices in the high end gift market."

The real value behind Engraved Well Gift's product line is the personalized engravings on each and every product in the online storefront. At no extra cost, every product in the store has room for one or more lines of personal messages to be engraved on them.

"Nothing makes a gift more thoughtful and sincere than when you can add your own custom message to it," says Gilliland. "If you've got someone on your list that is just impossible to shop for, we have the perfect answer for you. Any gift, once engraved with a custom personal message which truly has meaning, becomes a beautiful token of gratitude and an immediate keepsake."

With their new fall additions, Engraved Well Gifts now offers almost 300 unique gifts on their website.
