Project Summary

Songs for Soldiers is a 3-hr. musical event incorporating live music and clips from a video documentary of the group Lugo Latin Soul on tour in the Middle East.

Project Description

Songs for Soldiers is a performance piece who's purpose is to inform and expose life as it is for Americans abroad in places too difficult to explain. The piece will involve, provoke and engage the audience with dance and participation. Members of the group will reenact our wondrous and most horrific moments in the desert. From getting arrested in a Muslim country, flying cargo with 5 American dead soldier casualties in caskets, extortion to smelling the Afghani rose and wild poppy and finally playing great music for the best audience in the world (the troops).

Detail

The public component of Songs for Soldiers will be held either at the Nuyorican poets cafe or at the Saint Marks Church. Both serve the lover east side and the Bowery. the audience will be an average 18-65 in age and mostly NYC community residents.

Promote

Songs for Soldiers will be publicized and promoted in BLOGS, Google adds words, its own website, email campaign, Myspace and Face-book evites and sites, flyers with small adds in local newspapers. A guest appearance on public access TV 'The Barry Z show'.
