

Barina Craft Announces Launch of Artisan Home Bar Furniture

Barina Craft, a manufacturer of home furnishings, is marking Spring 2009 with the introduction of their heirloom quality home bar furniture.

January 7, 2009 (FPRC) -- Dublin, OH - Barina Craft, a manufacturer of home furnishings, is marking Spring 2009 with the introduction of their heirloom quality home bar furniture.

Designed and constructed incorporating classic wooden boat elements using traditional methods. Steam bent solid mahogany planks over a batten and frame design is utilized. The resulting indoor bar appears to be a boat sliced in half from bow to stern. The compound curved hull with spray and rub rails, decks, covering and ceiling boards, accent trim and more are some of the features which make this truly unique and exquisite furniture. An extensive variety of options are available for customization and personalization which enables adaptability to individual room design and preferences. These include stain choices, teak and holly decking, wine and stemware racks, locking liquor cabinet, bottle wells, dry sink / fruit pan, gold leaf and many other choices. The shape of the hull and transom provide a natural space for knees while seated and a footrest adds comfort. Special requests for options not currently listed are considered.

Founded in 2007, Barina Craft is now offering home bars via their website with shipments throughout the continental United States. The BarinaCraft site includes a detailed frequently asked questions section to help address any concerns, while the wood furniture care and use brochure covers the topics of wood characteristics, effects of climate changes and discusses many more subjects. All of their distinctive bar furniture is handcrafted in the USA. The exquisite details will add beauty and elegance to any home and is furniture destined to become a treasured part of family heirlooms.
