Magnum Nautica is a premier Luxury yacht charter Croatia service. The yacht can carry a guest load of ten people who will be accommodated in a double master cabin, one double VIP cabin, two twin cabins and one convertible multi – purpose cabin which can either be used as a bedroom or turned into a home theater, conference room or a private salon by the guests.' All the cabins, which come with their own attached modern toilets, are furnished with deluxe furnishings and high quality cherry wood. The Azimut Jumbo 100 also has a large fly bridge that offers a vast open area where guests can lounge on the deck or relax in a luxury whirlpool bath. The yacht is also equipped with the latest water sports equipment like a Kawasaki 2 seater Waverunner and an 80 hp 4.3 meters Novourania semi-rigid tender.

Mrs. Dragica Gadzo also told reporters that the company has recently added another luxury yacht to its fleet, Yaretti 2210. This exceptional piece of engineering is 22 meters long and its high quality and exquisite design put it among one of the best boats cruising the Croatian Adriatic. The Yaretti 2210 has three luxuriously appointed cabins that can accommodate 6 guests. All 3 cabins come with modern baths and toilets. All of Magnum Nautica's luxury yachts have separate cabins for the crew, and the crew area is set apart from the guest area so as to accord clients with utmost privacy. The company offers the 'highest quality of services to its guests and customers, and special care is taken to provide for all kinds of customer needs ranging from special equipment or services on board to special cuisine made as per the client's requirements.' To cater to the growing demand for luxury yachts, Magnum Nautica has also started a yacht management program, where the company will be able to offer the use of yachts that it does not fully own to people desirous of cruising the Adriatic sea.

Till date, the company was only chartering yachts and motor boats that were fully owned by it, but with Croatia being one of the world's most recommended sailing and charter destinations, a high rate of demand for luxury yachts has led to the initiation of Magnum Nautica's Yacht Management Program so that more yachts can be made available to clients during the peak sailing seasons. Appraising all present about the strategic location of the Magnum Nautica fleet at the Marina Kastela, which is just minutes away from Croatia's Split international airport, Mrs. Dragica Gadzo emphasized how almost all European clients could be on board a luxury yacht within an hour of leaving their native cities.
