

Trail Cam Pro Expands Product Offering With New Bushnell Trophy Cam Digital Trail Camera

Trail Cam Pro, an online scouting camera superstore, has added a new Bushnell Trophy Cam digital camera to its wide selection of premier digital scouting equipment.

March 24, 2009 (FPRC) -- SPRINGFIELD, MO -- Online digital trail camera superstore, Trail Cam Pro, recently announced that it has added a new Bushnell Trophy Cam digital camera to its expansive offering of high quality trail cameras and accessories. Comparable to a Scoutguard scouting camera, the new five mega pixel Bushnell Trophy Cam digital camera offers an array of advanced technological features, including 24 night vision LEDs. Those interested can read more about the Bushnell Trophy Cam in Trail Cam Pro's Bushnell Trophy Cam review (<http://www.trailcampro.com/bushnelltrophyreview.aspx>).

A leading online retailer of trail and field cameras for hunters and wildlife enthusiasts, Trail Cam Pro offers customers a wide selection of trail cameras and digital scouting camera accessories. The company's 100% satisfaction and low price guarantees, combined with its expansive product offering and exceptional customer service have helped it become one of the premier trail camera superstores online today.

"The Bushnell Trophy Cam digital camera is a great addition to our line of high tech scouting cameras. With a trigger speed of 1.2 seconds, this camera is one of the best on the market today. When our customers buy from Trail Cam Pro, they have confidence that they're not only getting a great product, but also the best price available," says Rich Howell, President of Trail Cam Pro. Only six inches tall and four inches wide, the Bushnell Trophy digital camera is being said to possibly revolutionize the game camera industry. This extraordinary camera runs efficiently on a single set of AA batteries for up to six full months. Additionally, the Bushnell Trophy Cam's digital camera sensor satisfactorily covers an area three times larger than any other camera the manufacturer has built to date. Unlike most scouting cameras, the newest Bushnell Trophy Cam camera offers a convenient video mode to record up to 60 seconds of programmable action. For added convenience, the durable camera also features an optional built-in color viewer.

Additional manufacturer specifications of the Bushnell Trophy Cam digital camera include a convenient time-lapse mode, optional high/low resolution settings, a programmable trigger interval from zero seconds to 60 minutes, and more.

"We are very excited to offer the new five mega pixel Bushnell Trophy digital camera. Trail Cam Pro's commitment to providing superior products at the guaranteed lowest prices have helped us grow to be one of the premier scouting camera retailers online today," says Howell.
