April 28, 2009 (FPRC) -- EL SEGUNDO, CA – Your Man Tours (YMT) Vacations, a premier online discount tour operator, recently announced that a special Tournament of Roses and Mexican Riviera cruise vacation package is now available.

While on the tour, guests enjoy a luxurious seven-night cruise through the beautiful Mexican Riviera, as well as a six-day motor coach tour of premier southern California destinations. A highlight of the trip includes an exclusive viewing the popular Tournament of Roses Parade. Departing December 29, 2009, the 13-day tour package is specially priced at $1,099 per person, plus tax.

“YMT Vacations is excited to offer such an affordable and unique combination tour package. Through this special land and sea experience, guests enjoy some of California’s most beautiful sites, as well as the breathtaking landscape of the Mexican Riviera aboard one of the finest cruise ships in the world,” says Frank Channel, Director of Operations at YMT Vacations.

The specialty combination tour package begins with a stay in the renowned Renaissance Hotel in Los Angeles, CA. Guests enjoy exploring the greater Los Angeles area, including dazzling Hollywood, on a comfortable and spacious motor coach with an accredited and professionally trained tour driver. As members of the tour, guests also experience the famous Tournament of Roses Parade first hand. Not only will they have an opportunity to watch the annual parade, which is held in Pasadena, CA on New Year’s Day, but guests will also enjoy an exclusive evening float viewing, giving them a chance to get up close and personal with the stars of the show – the fragrant and flowery floats.

In addition to the motor coach tour, the “sea” portion of the vacation package includes a luxurious Mexican Riviera cruise aboard Holland America’s premier ship, ms Oosterdam. Departing from San Diego, the cruise features convenient stops in Mazatlan, Puerto Vallarta and Cabo San Lucas, allowing guests to enjoy all that the tropical paradise has to offer.
