

Prospective Garden Spot Village Residents Can Now Explore the Community Through Online Virtual Tours

Garden Spot Village, a non-profit Continuing Care Retirement Community now offers online virtual tours of the Garden Spot Village Facility. The tours cover the community's main areas, including the Village Square and gardens.

May 7, 2009 (FPRC) -- NEW HOLLAND, PA - Garden Spot Village, a non-profit Continuing Care Retirement Community, announces that it has recently published a variety 360 degree virtual tours on its website.

The virtual tours give prospective residents and their families a complete view of nearly every aspect of the facility, including the community's 'Village Square,' complete with a concierge desk, bank, ATM and a store, the chapel, the indoor garden, the outdoor 'Legacy' garden and the short-term rehabilitation household area. The household tour offers views of the front doors, great rooms, bedroom and the spa.

"Once prospective residents view our new 360 degree virtual tours, we know they'll want to come and experience Garden Spot Village first hand. Our beautiful facilities offer a wide range of residential choices, from large apartments to private beautiful carriage homes. No matter where you come from or why you're choosing a retirement community, we know you'll love to live here and we'll love to have you here," said Scott Miller, Director of Marketing at Garden Spot Village.

Located in eastern Lancaster County in Pennsylvania, Garden Spot Village was founded in 1990 and opened its doors to the first residents in 1996. Since then, the community has been providing residents aged 62 and up with a caring environment that's able to meet nearly every need. Although the community was founded on Christian values, Garden Spot Village is home to every faith and background.

"Our residents may be retired, but they're retiring their own way. Our facilities allow them to enjoy the best years of their lives, whether they're looking to take a stroll through the countryside, swim laps in the pool or just sit down with a good book," said Miller. "We offer our residents a certified personal trainer, as well as a state-of-the-art fitness and wellness center and indoor heated pool. Garden Spot Village's residents are so friendly and welcoming, many newcomers feel like they've lived here forever from the minute they walk in. We invite everyone to come in for a visit and experience the carefree lifestyle and companionship of our tightly knit community."

Eleven virtual tours are available on the Garden Spot Village.org website. Still shots of the 360 tours are also available for viewing at: <http://www.flickr.com/photos/garden-spot-village>.
