

New Sunnyvale Homes At Trinity Park Offer Homebuyers The Rare Opportunity Of Value And Style

Trinity Park is now offering affordable Sunnyvale real estate in the popular Homestead High School District in Cupertino. Prospects are lining up for a Sneak Peek tour during the community's preview weekend May 16 & 17.

May 13, 2009 (FPRC) -- SUNNYVALE, CA – Premier new home community, Trinity Park, recently announced that homes are now for sale in the popular Homestead High School District in Cupertino. The grand opening of the exclusive community, which features 42 spacious new single-family Sunnyvale homes, has generated significant public interest. With a preview weekend scheduled for May 16 & 17, 2009, sales staff at Trinity Park have already compiled a list of more than 600 interested, qualified prospects.

Additionally, nearly 80 prospects have scheduled a Sneak Peek tour to get the first look at the available homes built by reputable Bay Area builder, Classic Communities, Inc. As a leading specialty homebuilder, Classic Communities has an established reputation for providing award-winning home designs in the finest Silicon Valley locations.

"The amazing public response we have seen at Trinity Park is an indicator of strong demand in the Sunnyvale real estate market. The quality construction from Classic Communities, combined with the premier location in the Homestead High School District makes Trinity Park an appealing choice for many families," says Nancy Goldrain, Community Sales Manager of Trinity Park.

The Homestead High School District in Cupertino, which is part of the Fremont Union High School District, offers some of the most coveted educational resources in southern California. It is very rarely that new homes in this popular school district are available for sale. Cupertino school programs are consistently recognized nationally for their leadership and commitment to applying technology to enrich learning of students. The district is committed to offering the highest level of learning for every student in a supportive, safe, productive and respectful learning environment.

Along with being in the Homestead High School District, homes in Trinity Park offer many additional appealing attributes, including Energy Star certified construction, two-car garages, private yards and sumptuous master suites. The spacious home designs at Trinity Park, which range from 1,650 to 2,500 square feet of living space, are available in three, four or five bedroom floor plans.

"With the incredible interest we have seen thus far, we don't expect homes in Trinity Park to last long. Interested buyers are encouraged to move quickly if they would like to secure their own piece of Sunnyvale real estate," says Goldrain.
