

Travelers Take Part In National Fishing And Boating Week Through Exclusive Best On Key West Tours

National Fishing and Boating Week takes place from June 6-14, 2009. To help guests take part in this exciting celebration, Best On Key West is offering an array of fishing adventure tours perfect for anglers of all skill levels.

May 27, 2009 (FPRC) -- KEY WEST, FL - Popular Key West Florida tour operator, Best On Key West, recently announced it is offering exclusive fishing tour packages to allow guests to participate in National Fishing and Boating Week, which takes place from June 6-14, 2009. Coordinated by the Recreational and Boating Foundation, National Fishing and Boating Week helps guests recognize the sport of fishing annually during the first full week of June. To help vacationers celebrate this exciting week, Best On Key West has an array of offshore, flats, light tackle and party boat fishing tours available.

"There is simply no better place to celebrate National Fishing and Boating Week than in the beautiful sparkling blue waters off the island of Key West. Here, anglers will enjoy an amazing fishing experience like no other place on earth. At Best On Key West, we are thrilled to offer a wide variety of fishing and boating tours perfect for anglers of all ages and skill levels," says Chris Gardner of Best On Key West.

For travelers looking to take part in National Fishing and Boating Week, Best On Key West offers six unique offshore fishing adventures. From its exclusive 'Lethal Weapon' tour aboard a luxurious and stylish 44-foot vessel, to its highly sought after 'Coolwater' fishing charter and more, travelers can choose from a half, three quarters or full day experience.

In addition to its offshore fishing excursions, Best On Key West also offers guests the option of five exciting flats fishing tours and four memorable light tackle trips. On its 'Miss Inclined' flats fishing tour, guests enjoy fishing using fly tackle aboard a 17' Maverick Mirage Hip Skiff. Additionally, the knowledgeable captain aboard the 'Boo Ya' fishing adventure allows guests to experience a fruitful day of light tackle fishing.

For anglers who want to celebrate while taking part in National Fishing and Boating Week, Best On Key West also offers an exciting party boat fishing trip called the Tortuga IV tour. One of the firm's most popular tours, the Tortuga IV allows guests to enjoy fishing aboard a spacious 64-ft. catamaran vessel, complete with a full service galley serving ice-cold beer, sandwiches and snacks.

Along with its exciting fishing adventures, Best On Key West also offers travelers a wide selection of additional Key West experiences to enjoy. From exclusive Key West diving and snorkeling excursions to more laid back dinner cruises and eco tours, Best On Key West provides vacationers with high quality tour packages to complete any Key West vacation. The firm's 110% low price guarantee, along with its expansive tour selection has helped it become the second highest ranked national tour operator in the country.

"Key West is the picture perfect backdrop for the vacation of everyone's dreams. Whether you're looking for an exciting fishing adventure to hook the catch of a lifetime, or if you simply want to sneak away for a romantic weekend at a Key West inn, this tropical paradise has it all," says

Gardner.
