

Award Winning Florist Chosen by BBrooks to Represent the Raleigh-Durham, Triangle Region

The award winning English Garden Florist has been selected by BBrooks, the consortium of florists, to service the Raleigh-Durham, Triangle Region of North Carolina.

May 30, 2009 (FPRC) -- The English Garden, the award winning florist in Raleigh, NC, is pleased to announce that it has been selected by BBrooks, the consortium of florists, to represent the Raleigh-Durham, Triangle Region of North Carolina.

BBrooks is a high-end network of florists that focus on delivering high quality and luxury designs. Florists in the BBrooks networks are a hand selected few who have demonstrated a consistent level of quality and service. To gain approval the English Garden Florist had to submit a detailed portfolio of their work.

"We are so pleased to have been selected by BBrooks," said Cydney Davis-English, owner of the Raleigh florist. "This enables us to have access to a network of florists that have the same level of design skill and concerns for quality as we do."

This isn't the first time the quality, dedication and service of the English Garden Raleigh Florist has been recognized. In January the English Garden was voted the Best Place to Buy Flowers in the Triangle. They received the accolade as part of the annual Diamond awards where readers of Midtown Magazine vote for what is best services/business in the Midtown area of Raleigh.
