

Tour Operator, Best On Key West, Announces 4th Of July Fireworks Cruise In Key West, Florida

Florida tour operator, Best On Key West, has announced a fireworks and dinner cruise for Independence Day celebrations in Key West, Florida. The cruise offers guests a unique vantage point for the annual exciting fireworks display.

June 28, 2009 (FPRC) -- KEY WEST, FL - Popular tour agents, Best On Key West, has announced a special fireworks and dinner cruise in Key West Florida as part of its celebrations for 4th of July 2009. The special Independence Day cruise is equally well suited for families and couples looking for a romantic night out.

Fireworks are a part of 4th of July celebrations across the country, and a cruise offers guests and locals alike a unique way to enjoy the display. Tour participants travel out to sea aboard a comfortable catamaran vessel, the Caribbean Spirit, to experience a gorgeous sunset followed by one-of-a-kind fireworks unique to Key West. International visitors should be prepared to witness and experience first hand a full blown sparkling display of all American fireworks put out by the city of Key West.

While the fireworks are dazzling, passengers of the 4th of July Cruise are offered an equally stunning array of gastronomic delights from which to choose. Exotic hors d'oeuvres are followed by a delicious Cuban buffet dinner spread. Guests can also choose from beer, wine, sangria, champagne and sodas for their beverage of choice.

"Fourth of July is a special event, and at Best On Key West we celebrate special events in style. This cruise is a unique experience and there is nothing quite like watching a dazzling display of fireworks with a gorgeous sunset in the background. This is a once a year special, so we recommend making reservations immediately," says Chris Gardner of Best On Key West.

Tourists traveling to Key West, Florida for their 4th of July break are strongly advised to make reservations at hotels in advance as well. Last minute bookings and walk-ins may be difficult to accommodate. However, Best On Key West assures travelers it will try to provide alternate accommodation options as far as possible.

"This is usually a very busy period for Key West, and we always advise tourists that they book their accommodation in advance. While we may be able to offer them other options, it is better to make reservations well ahead of time so you aren't disappointed when you arrive. Key West offers a variety of bed and breakfasts, inns and hotels that tourists can choose from," says Gardner.

In addition to the 4th of July cruise, Best On Key West offers a wide variety of Key West tours for island visitors of all ages, including Key West scuba diving, snorkeling, kayaking, swimming with dolphins, jet skiing, golfing, sightseeing tours and more.
