

Best On Cabo Now Featuring 'Rum Runnin' Cabo Fishing Charter

Popular Mexico tour operator Best On Cabo is now offering tourists a Cabo fishing and angling experience like no other aboard the 32 feet Rum Runnin charter. The all day tour is inclusive of bait, tackle and lunch.

July 3, 2009 (FPRC) -- CABO SAN LUCAS, MEXICO – Tour agents Best On Cabo are now offering tourists and fishing enthusiasts a world class angling experience aboard the 'Rum Runnin' Cabo fishing charter. The Rum Runnin is operated by Red Rum Sportfishing, a leading provider of high quality sports boats. The 32' Crystalliner is cozy yet spacious enough to accommodate up to 6 passengers or fishermen. For the convenience of international tourists, a professional English speaking crew mans the boat.

Cabo San Lucas is a resort town on the tip of the Baja peninsula. Originally a fishing village, this Mexican small town began attracting tourists in 1970 due to its tropical climates, pristine beaches and the opportunity to participate in various outdoor activities. It is a tourist hotspot for sports fishing enthusiasts and the Rum Runnin tour perfectly caters to this passion.

"Cabo is known for its fishing history and the Rum Runnin charter tour is the perfect way to experience Cabo's rich fishing culture first hand. Red Rum Sportsfishing is becoming an increasingly popular sports fishing tour operator among its retail clients. Professional sports fishers and sports channels ESPN and Sportsman Channel are also beginning to take notice of the Red Rum vessels, thus passengers aboard the Rum Runnin can be assured of the very best service and facilities," says Chris Gardner of Best On Cabo.

The Rum Runnin Cabo fishing excursion is an all day experience lasting 8 hours. The charter departs from the Cabo Marina Dock at 6:30 a.m. and returns to the same dock at 2:30 p.m. The price of an all day tour is $650 with a maximum of 6 anglers aboard. In addition, anglers are required to have a fishing license, which can be easily purchased for approximately $13 per person. The tour price includes enough bait and tackle for all anglers, lunch on board, ice-cooled bottled water and other assorted snacks for a fun experience. The crew also provides personal instruction to anglers for a safe fishing experience.

Apart from fishing excursions, Cabo is an excellent locale for several kinds of outdoor activities, some of which include Cabo dolphin swim, snorkeling, scuba diving, kayaking, golfing, helicopter rides, jet ski tours and the like.

"While we definitely recommend a fishing charter excursion to any passionate angler, Best On Cabo also offers several other activities to tourists in Cabo including a breathtaking Desert Safari experience, horseback riding and romantic dinner and sunset cruises. We offer the ultimate holiday experience for tourists of all ages," concluded Gardner.
