

Premier Tour Operator, Best On Puerto Vallarta, Now Offering Las Caletas Day Adventure

Acclaimed tour agents, Best On Puerto Vallarta, are now offering a cruise and day adventure at nearby Las Caletas. Other activities offered by the firm include Puerto Vallarta zipline adventures, dolphin swims and scuba diving.

July 3, 2009 (FPRC) -- PUERTO VALLARTA, MEXICO - Tour operator, Best On Puerto Vallarta, is now conducting cruises and day adventure tours to the exotic tropical beaches of Las Caletas. Located on Banderas Bay, this tropical paradise is an ideal getaway with plenty of activities for visitors to enjoy. Water activities organized by the firm in Las Caletas include Puerto Vallarta dolphin swims, scuba diving, kayaking and snorkeling. Tourists can also participate in learning how to make male paella, visit the hilltop Spa center or simply lie back and make the most of the exclusive beach in this relaxing paradise.

Puerto Vallarta is a popular vacation destination for travelers of all ages and demographics due to its exotic appeal. Located on Mexico's west coast, Puerto Vallarta enjoys a beautiful locale at the bottom of the Bay of Banderas surrounded by the blue waters of the Pacific Ocean. Its beautiful environment automatically makes the city an instant draw for tourists. Best On Puerto Vallarta offers a number of Puerto Vallarta tours, with something for everyone to enjoy, including outdoor adventures and water activities.

"A cruise to Las Caletas is the icing on the already fantastic cake of Puerto Vallarta. Visitors can simply relax and soak up the sun in the exclusive, crowd-free beach or spend the day immersing themselves in the huge number of water and land activities available," says Chris Gardner of Best On Puerto Vallarta.

Top of the mark catamarans depart from the Nuevo Vallarta Adventure Center at 8:30 a.m. and the Vallarta Maritime Terminal at 9:00 a.m., Monday to Saturday. After spending a day at the island, the boat returns passengers to their port of choice at 3:30 and 4:00 p.m., respectively. The entire Las Caletas day adventure lasts seven hours. To experience this island paradise, advance bookings are recommended. Adult tickets are priced at $85 per person while bookings for children under 12 cost $57. Included in the cost are a light breakfast, a delicious buffet lunch spread, open bar as well as snorkeling and kayaking equipment and tours.

Additional activities on the island all incur an extra cost and participation is at the discretion of the tourist. Apart from the various water activities, some of the other popular activities organized by Best On Puerto Vallarta include Puerto Vallarta zipline adventures, nature walks, explorations of the area with a tour of an ancient Mayan pyramid, paella cooking lessons and explorations of the natural flora and fauna of the island. For the Caletas Day Adventure, Best On Puerto Vallarta recommends that tourists bring swimwear, towels, sunscreen, a sunhat, light jacket and a camera.

"The beauty of Las Caletas is hard to describe, but tourists often say it is one of the most beautiful places they have ever been to. Film director John Huston was so enchanted with the place that he made a home here. Even a day adventure to the exclusive island is enough for tourists to see why this place is so hard to leave," says Gardner.
