

Best On Key West Offering Golf Excursions In Celebration Of National Golf Month

In addition to the usual Key West scuba diving, premier tour operator Best On Key West is now giving visitors a chance to celebrate National Golf Month by offering golf excursions in the Florida holiday town. Prices start at $95 per person.

July 21, 2009 (FPRC) -- KEY WEST, FL - Key West's leading tour agent, Best On Key West, has jumped onto the bandwagon and is celebrating the U.S. National Golf Month of August in style. Visitors to the tropical Florida town are now being offered the chance to participate in golf excursions organized by Best On Key West. For golf enthusiasts, this is one of the best Key West attractions, combining a perfect beach holiday with a unique golf tour.

The Key West Golf Course has a unique identity, as it is the only golf course in the United States that can be found in the Caribbean Sea. Golfers can enjoy their golfing experience in a modern, state-of-the-art golf course designed for the ultimate golfing experience whilst enjoying the tropical breezes from the Caribbean and the Gulf of Mexico.

Best On Key West has a 110% low price guarantee for its golf excursion tours, giving golfers an additional reason to celebrate this August. Prices for the golf excursion start at $95, with under 18 players paying a reduced rate of $50. The tours are available all year round, though the prices are higher after October. Golfers can choose to go on an excursion at various times of the day with the first one starting at 7:00 a.m. Since August is a special month for golfers, the Best on Key West golfing attractions are likely to sell out quick. Tour consultants advise visitors to not only book their golfing excursions in advance but also book their Key West inns and hotels ahead of time. Booking ahead guarantees a place and usually leads to additional savings as well.

"National Golf Month is a very special time for golfers and what better way to celebrate than by taking a vacation to Key West. Beaches, scuba diving, snorkeling, sightseeing and of course lots of golf! We do recommend making bookings in advance because it's a busy time and every golfer likes to have a bit of fun down here," says Chris Gardner of Best On Key West.

Best On Key West is a leading Florida tour operator offering visitors a variety of activities for their Key West vacation. A look at the website will reveal that the tour agency has several specials which change every season. While a golfing enthusiast will be attracted to the golf excursions organized by the company, others can enjoy Key West scuba diving, snorkeling, fishing, sightseeing and several water sports as well.

"Key West, Florida is a beautiful place for a holiday and the golf excursion is the icing on the cake," says Gardner.
