

Best On Key West Offers Relaxing Tours To Help Guests Celebrate National Relaxation Day On August 15

Tour operator, Best On Key West, is promoting National Relaxation Day on August 15 and encouraging guests to relax and unwind by taking advantage of the various activities such as Key West fishing, cruises or even playing golf.

July 21, 2009 (FPRC) -- KEY WEST, FL - Tour agency Best On Key West is encouraging visitors to relax and celebrate the upcoming National Relaxation Day on August 15 in Key West, Florida. The tour operators offer visitors a plethora of relaxing tours to choose from, including but not limited to dinner cruises, fishing tours, golfing excursions and all day island tours as well.

The Annual National Relaxation Day has been instituted to make people take a step back from their busy, stressful lives and relax. The day promotes leisure and wants people to celebrate a day away from hectic work and personal schedules. There are no rules to follow except no stressful activities are allowed and people are encouraged to celebrate Relaxation Day by doing something relaxing that they truly enjoy.

Some of the activities that made it to the Top Ten Ideas for enjoyable activities on Relaxation Day are fishing, golfing, lounging around in a hammock and spending the day at the beach. As Florida's leading tour operator, Best On Key West has activities that fit the bill and visitors are encouraged to participate in these activities to celebrate relaxation and freedom from stress.

"Unfortunately stress and hectic schedules are an intrinsic part of modern life and some of us don't make time for ourselves. By providing these relaxing activities to guests, we hope they will make the most of Relaxation Day and enjoy themselves rather than worry about work," says Chris Gardner of Best On Key West.

Best On Key West's popularity as a tour agent can be attributed to its large offering of tour activities. For the ultimate dining experience, Best On Key West offers several dinner cruises treating guests to a delicious dinner and a cruise under the moonlight. For the romantically less-inclined, the Dry Tortugas Island day adventure is a perfect way to unwind at the beach and soak up the sun. Best on Key West also offers several Key West fishing tours and expeditions perfectly suited for angling enthusiasts. For golfers feeling left out, Best On Key West has golfing excursions as well.

"Relaxation Day doesn't have to mean a boring day at home watching TV. We encourage visitors to come to Key West instead and enjoy a relaxing day. Whether it is Key West fishing, cruises or an island tour, the best way to enjoy a Top Ten relaxation idea is here in Florida," concludes Gardner.
