

Key West Tours Provider, Best On Key West, Announces Conch Quest Private Charter Tour

Leading tour agency Best On Key West has now included the Conch Quest Private Charter Tour as part of their 'Featured Tours' offerings. The tour is available for full day and half-day excursions, Sunset cruises and Key West snorkeling trips.

July 21, 2009 (FPRC) -- KEY WEST, FL – Adding to its ever-evolving list of Key West tours, premier tour company Best On Key West has announced a brand new Featured Tour – the Conch Quest Private Charter Tour. This relaxing tour aboard a sailboat is available for a variety of different trips at the 110% low price guarantee Best On Key West is acclaimed for.

The Conch Quest Private Charter Tour is a unique attraction in Key West, as tour participants join the Conch Quest crew aboard an authentic sailboat, an experience not many have had the chance to enjoy in the 21st century. The Conch Quest is a 43-foot sailboat that was formerly a part of the International Offshore Racing division. The boat holds up to six passengers and provides the very best comfort, functionality and speed to tour participants.

The boat can be hired for various trips including half and full day trips, Key West snorkeling excursions, sunset cruises or any other custom designed charter trip tour participants have in mind. Prices start at $300 for a sunset charter trip.

"The Conch Quest Private Charter is a fabulous way of making the most of the Key West waters. Tourists no longer have to jostle for space on a busy tour boat when they can simply book our Conch Quest sail boat instead and sail the seas at their leisure," says Chris Gardner of Best On Key West.

With many attractions and Key West restaurants, this Florida town is very attractive to tourists and the new Conch Quest Private Charter Featured Tour is an added bonus. Visitors can book the sailboat and enjoy a sailing trip to the Dry Tortugas, Marquesas or Miami. Once aboard, passengers are encouraged to participate in the sailing adventure, but for those keen on simply relaxing, the crew is happy to let passengers simply enjoy the ride. The Conch Quest sailboat is a state-of-the-art modern vessel with features designed for maximum comfort. The boat features a fully functional toilet, warm water showers, private changing areas, cooler space, plenty of deck space for relaxation, snorkeling gear and equipment and comfortable beds for overnight journeys.

"The Conch Quest is designed to make a trip comfortable and very memorable. We encourage visitors to make the most of this sailing trip because chartered sailboats like these are not easy to come by, especially at such affordable prices," says Gardner.
