

Tim Verbeek: Improved Los Angeles Events Calendar on LA2DAY Keeps Locals and Visitors Updated on the best Local Events

Popular lifestyle magazine LA2DAY has introduced a calendar chock full of Los Angeles events to keep locals and visitors up-to-date with trendiest events in the star-studded city.

September 2, 2009 (FPRC) -- LOS ANGELES, CA – LA's leading lifestyle publication LA2DAY is adding to the list of socializing 'must haves' with its Los Angeles events 2009 calendar. The comprehensive events calendar includes every event, from mainstream to underground, in the LA social circuit.

LA2DAY is well known in LA for being one of the trendiest lifestyle magazines. With its popular staff of locals who are 'in the know,' LA2DAY readers are guaranteed all the hot news on fashion, gossip, and now the events worth attending. The LA2DAY staff is constantly keeping an eye (and ear) out to catch the latest news on the hip and happening events in California's favorite party city and includes it all in the Los Angeles events calendar.

"LA's culture is unlike any other city and we wanted to capture the vibrancy of its events in a calendar like no other. The LA2DAY calendar will include everything from grand openings to live performances by bands, from elaborate parties to awards functions, to make sure we cover events of interest for every LA citizen. If it's happening in Los Angeles, you are bound to see it in the LA2DAY calendar," says Tim Verbeek of LA2DAY.

While LA is always bustling with activities and events, a sample of events in LA featured in August on the LA2DAY calendar should give social butterflies a taste of how important this calendar is. The Open Canvas Launch on September 11th offers an opportunity for 'up and coming/struggling' artists to compete in a national Art & Fashion competition. Between September 11th and September 13th, locals and visitors can take part in the Original Long Beach Lobster Festival and enjoy succulent lobster feasts, a beer and wine garden, arts and crafts booths, live entertainment, and more.

"If you are serious about socializing in Los Angeles then you simply cannot do without the LA2DAY event calendar. Our goal is to ensure that our readers never miss out on an important or fun, cultural, or social event in the city. For those who want to be a permanent fixture on the LA social scene, we recommend they making our free LA events calendar a permanent fixture in their life," says Tim Verbeek.
