September 27, 2009 (FPRC) -- As fall arrives and Cabo San Lucas begins to prepare itself for the busy Cabo San Lucas whale watching season, Best On Cabo will debut its brand new site, Cabo Whale Watching.net, that will provide Cabo travelers with information on Cabo whales and whale watching Cabo San Lucas tours in one comprehensive and user-friendly online resource.

Like the rest of Best On Cabo's informative Cabo San Lucas tours and activities site, the whale watching Cabo San Lucas website offers detailed description of the various Cabo San Lucas whale watching tours offered by the tour center, information on Cabo Whales, and information on Cabo San Lucas. The website was designed by the center's expert team of website designers and innovators who provide visitors with the most up-to-date technology that makes browsing the website easy and fun.

"The new website is for people looking to find more information on one of the most popular activities in Mexico, whale watching Cabo San Lucas," explains Best On Cabo web designer Aman Rodriguez. "There's plenty of reading material on there and lots of pictures to give people an idea of what to expect on a Cabo San Lucas whale watching trip."

In addition to descriptions of over ten of the best Cabo whale watching tours in the Los Cabos peninsula, the website also has a Featured Tours section, a Frequently Asked Questions section, information on the Cabo San Lucas whale watching season, and other useful information on Cabo San Lucas.

Whale watching Cabo San Lucas trips usually start some time in late December or early January when hundreds of whales migrate from the northern Arctic waters to the warmer waters off the coast of Cabo San Lucas.
