Detailer Products is quickly growing into the premier mega store for all your car care needs. A 1-stop shop for you to find all your products. Detailer Products is...DETAIL PRODUCTS FOR THE AMATEUR TO THE PRO!

What makes Detailer Products even more unique is that they will be recommending certain products and telling you what they use, as professionals. For years, they have been asked what products they use.

Total KO conducted study groups and found that the majority of our customers, followers, and fan base are very similar to the customer s, followers, and fan base of Detailer Products.

After we approached Detailer Products with a request to partner, it was then we learned that since the launch of Detailer Products just a few short months ago, they have received numerous inquiries regarding UFC and MMA merchandise.

Joining together and being able to offer both sets of our customers more options and more of what they seek, made perfect sense.
