

ElectricFireplacesDirect.com Announces Artificial Christmas Tree Giveaway

Leading electric fireplace retailer, ElectricFireplacesDirect.com announces its Christmas Holiday Promotion, which gives customers a chance to receive a free pre-lit Christmas tree in conjunction with their fireplace purchase.

November 25, 2009 (FPRC) -- FLORENCE, AL – Top ranking online electric fireplaces retailer, ElectricFireplacesDirect.com is bringing in the festive season with the launch of its new Christmas Holiday Promotion. The promotion is available on select Dimplex electric fireplace products and gives customers a chance to receive a free Christmas tree.

Customers spending $1,000 or more on eligible Dimplex products between November 24 and December 17, 2009, or while supplies last, will receive a pre-lit artificial Christmas tree, valued at $249. Dimplex products are eligible for this holiday deal, giving customers a wide variety of products to choose from. Dimplex is a leading brand producing world class fireplaces with their superior quality technology. Additional information about the giveaway is provided at <http://www.electricfireplacesdirect.com/dimplex-christmas-tree-promotion>.

ElectricFireplacesDirect.com is a leading authorized online retailer of electric fireplaces including fireplace and mantel packages, built-in, plug-in and wall-mount fireplaces as well as electric fireplace inserts, electric stoves, grills and electric fireplace heaters. In addition to providing top quality products, the company also helps customers by helping them with product comparisons, information, assistance and general product related advice.

“A fireplace creates an old world charm and adds warmth to the home in more than one way. Our fantastic holiday deal gives customers a chance to not only get their hands on top quality Dimplex fireplaces but also add to the Christmas warmth with a beautiful pre-lit Christmas tree that they will receive as a special gift from us,” says Rick Morse, CEO of ElectricFireplacesDirect.com.

The Dimplex Christmas Holiday Promotion includes the Multi-Fire™ series of Dimplex Electric Fireplaces. The new 32" Dimplex Multi-Fire™ Electric Fireplace incorporates advanced features and unsurpassed realism that sets a new benchmark. The electric fireplaces feature the patented Dimplex flame effect with realistic hand-finished logs with a natural inner glow and pulsating embers that mimic the ambiance of traditional fireplaces. The Promotion also includes Built-in Electric Fireboxes and a variety of other products that come backed with a 10-year warranty.

ElectricFireplacesDirect.com is one of only a few Certified Authorized Internet Distributors of Dimplex Electric Fireplaces. ElectricFireplacesDirect.com ships Dimplex products free of charge throughout the continental U.S. and Canada. Many items are in stock and available for delivery in five to seven days, giving customers a chance to add a fireplace to their home well before Christmas.
