

West Orange Dentist Paul Feldman Launches Brand New Patient Friendly Website

Cosmetic dentist West Orange, Dr. Paul Feldman has announced the launch of a new website for his practice. The site has been designed and developed by leading dental web design company, Officite.

November 25, 2009 (FPRC) -- WEST ORANGE, NJ – Leading West Orange dentist, Dr. Paul R. Feldman D.M.D, is now offering easy access to the practice's dental services through its newly designed website. The firm's newly established web presence will make Dr. Feldman more easily accessible by both current as well as prospective patients.

As a leading dentist in West Orange NJ, Dr. Feldman has been providing top-notch cosmetic dental care to patients in the area since 1983. Dr. Feldman and his staff aim to create a perfect smile for patients of all ages with a variety of cosmetic dentistry alternatives. The new website is a way for the practice to extend its presence to the online world so patients, old and new can gain valuable information about Dr. Feldman and his practice's cosmetic dental services without any trouble at all.

"The new website is a way for us to keep with the times and give the patients what they demand. We are very excited about the site which uses state of the art technology but at the same time we have made sure it's very easy to use so patients can easily find all the information they need. Patients will also love our new online appointment setting feature which is the most convenient way to set the date with the dentist" says Dr. Paul R. Feldman D.M.D, the West Orange dentist.

The new website for Dr. Feldman's dental practice has been planned, developed and creatively managed and designed by the country's premier dental web designers, Officite. Officite are quickly becoming recognized as the nation's leading experts for providing superior quality internet solutions and strategies to medical and dental clients. In addition to lending their creative expertise to creating niche-specific dental websites, the firm also specializes in other web development and internet marketing solutions, which in turn greatly improves the performance of the client websites.

"Having designed dental care specific websites for many years now, we are completely in tune with what patients expect. We combined our knowledge with Dr. Feldman's knowledge of his patients' expectations and designed a website that is likely to be appreciated by the patients of this practice" says Glenn Lombardi of Officite.

Dr. Feldman and his dental practice are well known in the West Orange area, not just for providing quality dental care, but also for the excellent quality of service and well-trained courteous staff to back it up. The cosmetic dentist in West Orange provides quality care including services such as whitening, implants, braces, veneers and other assorted cosmetic dental alternatives.
