November 26, 2009 (FPRC) -- From Russian Club-Dance producer D.J.Generous a new front-line electrodisco album comes: 'LUV Machine' (www.luuuv.ru) from Green Mono Music Studio (GMmS Records).

D.J.Generous has been saturated by house music since the late 90s. In 1998, D.J.Generous released his first studio album 'Return'.

In late 2007, D.J.Generous helped push Katy Perry's

'I Kissed a Girl' in Russia by creating his own remixed version, becoming #1 in the Russia dance charts. D.J.Generous has received critical acclaims from David Guetta, Leona Lewis, One Republic, and Tim Deluxe.

Do you need LUV now? D.J.Generous will bring you 60 minutes of fathomless luv, full of energy, you can feel from the first seconds till the last one. All the songs in album are pretty ironical: only D.J.Generous can sing so happy about broken luv. Attention, it's really explicit!

This is the first, last and only album where D.J.Generous made everything by himself: music, vocal and lyrics, play the piano and even saxophone! A promo-track 'Get Away' from this album was downloaded more than amazing four thousand times in a week! It's a next Hit from D.J.Generous after 'I Do With Love' single.

D.J.Generous spoke about his creation: 'An idea of album LUV Machine was burned from a question - Why always we crying when Luv ends? I've tried to add some positive energy and look at this problem from the point of new better life beginning! Hope, got it. Only my listeners can answer...'

From December, 1, 2009 you can download this album on iTunes, Amazon and each other MP3 store worldwide. Be in touch with upcoming shows of D.J.Generous.
