Titanium-Jewelry is the only authorized seller of the JR YATES collection, which features cutting-edge designs crafted from contemporary metals such as titanium and tungsten carbide.

'Our jewelry is very popular with men in their 20s through 40s, and many of our rings are used as wedding bands for men,' said Ron Yates, designer and president, JR YATES. 'Men of this generation want a wedding ring that is different from what their fathers wear. These guys like the fact that their JR YATES rings have a 'forever polish' that keeps their rings looking new forever.'
