December 4, 2009 (FPRC) -- CardCycle.com, a national online greeting card and gift mailing shop and service, today announces the creation of a new online affiliate program hiring jobs now.

"We're so excited to be starting a new program, our online affiliates program hiring jobs now, as a way for YOU to make extra money! And you do it on your own schedule, at your own pace, your own way! We give you the tools and you make things happen. At the same time we are excited to be hiring jobs now at a time when our economy needs it the most", says Jennifer Gillespie, founder of CardCycle.com.

Here's how it works:

- You advertise CardCycle.com on your web page. If you don't have a web page, no problem, CardCycle.com will make one for you.
- People follow the links from your web page to CardCycle.com
- You earn up to 15% when they buy from CardCycle.com
- There's no inventory for you to buy and no orders for you to fill because Cardcycle.com will process the orders and YOU GET PAID!
- There are no start-up fees, if you have your own web page. And it only costs $35 if you want Cardcycle.com to build a web page for you. (see a sample page)
